(2) There is a serious risk that the defendant will endar	nger the safety of another person or the community.
Part II – Statement of	of the Reasons for Detention
I find that the testimony and information submitted at evidence a preponderance of the evidence that:	the detention hearing establishes by clear and convincing
1. Defendant waived his detention hearing, electing not to co	ontest detention at this time.
2. Defendant is subject to a hold/detainer and would not be
3. Defendant may bring the issue of his continuing detention	to the court's attention should his circumstances change.

Part III - Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.
